

Manchester Mind is a well-established Manchester charity delivering a range of services to people with mental health problems. Our vision is of a society that promotes and respects good mental health for all, and that treats people with experience of mental distress fairly, positively and with respect.

Participation Development Worker

Salary : £16,998 (pro rata)

Hours: 17.5 hours a week (Part-time)

Days: Between Monday and Friday (2.5 days a week or a 2 day/3 day fortnight)

Position: This is a temporary post for two years

We are seeking an experienced participation worker to join our young person's service (YASP) to lead on user involvement in a new partnership project. This work is funded by the Big Lottery 'Help Through Crisis' programme and is for young people aged 15 to 25 at risk of crisis. The Participation Development Worker will use a range of participation and inclusion methods to ensure the views of young people shape the development of this exciting new project across the three partnership organisations (Manchester Mind, YPSF & GMCDP). We are looking to appoint someone who has a minimum of two years experience of community development work, participation work or service development based upon user involvement. Knowledge of a range of participation methods is essential, as is a good understanding of equality and diversity issues and practices.

You can download an application form at www.manchestermind.org or request an application pack from yasp@manchestermind.org | 0161 221 3054.

Closing Date for applications:
12pm noon on Monday 6 June 2016.

We are hoping to hold interviews in the week starting 20 June 2016.

Manchester Mind is striving to be an equal opportunities employer and welcomes applications from all sections of the community. Manchester Mind sees it as a positive advantage if you have experience of mental health issues and/or have used mental health services or had experience of volunteering.
